SIR,—

I have the honour to transmit to Your Royal Highness, for the information of your Ministers, a copy of a notice published in the press on the 15th June, containing information for the guidance of persons desiring to record:—

(a.) Debts (including bank balances) due to British subjects from persons residing in enemy countries:

(b.) Other property in enemy countries (including securities) belonging to British subjects.

2. The Foreign Claims Office referred to in the last paragraph of the notice has been set up at the Foreign Office for the purpose of dealing with all claims for the settlement of which no satisfactory machinery has existed hitherto, and which are foreign in the sense that they are claims by British subjects against a foreign Government or by foreign nationals against His Majesty's Government.

I have, etc.,

A. BONAR LAW.

The Governor-General,

His Royal Highness

BRITISH PROPERTY IN ENEMY COUNTRIES.

HOW TO RECORD CLAIMS.

WE are officially informed that it has been arranged that the Public Trustee shall keep a record of:—

(a.) Debts (including bank balances) due to British subjects from persons residing in enemy countries:

(b.) Other property in enemy countries (including securities) belonging to British subjects.

Any person desiring to record such claims or property can obtain the necessary form for that purpose (Form G in the first case and Form H in the second) from the Public Trustee. Applications should be made to the Public Trustee (Trading with the Enemy Department), No. 2 Clement's Inu, Strand, W.C.

It must be clearly understood that the action of the Public Trustee will be confined to entering upon the record claims of which particulars are supplied to him, and that in no way commits His Majesty's Government either to responsibility for the correctness of the claim entered or to taking any action on the conclusion of hostilities or otherwise for the recovery of the debts or property in question.

The Public Trustee will record claims against enemy Governments in respect of public securities of those Governments held by the claimants, but other claims against enemy Governments (e.g., in respect of goods or property requisitioned or sequestered) as distinct from claims against enemy subjects should be notified to the Director of the Foreign Claims Office, Foreign Office, S.W.

"COUNTY COURTS ACT."

NOTICE is hereby given that the County Court Judge of the County Court of West Kootenay will attend and hold a County Court at the Town of Creston on the third Wednesday in each of the months of January, May, and September, 1916.

By command.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

EXTENSION SCHOOL.

SEALED TENDERS, superscribed "Tender for Extension School," will be received by the Honourable the Minister of Public Works up to 12 o'clock noon of Monday, the 15th day of May, 1916, for the erection and completion of a two-room school and outbuildings at Extension, in the Newcastle Electoral District, British Columbia.

Plans, specifications, contract, and forms of tender may be seen on and after the 27th day of April, 1916, at the offices of J. Mahony, Government Agent, Court-house, Vancouver; J. Kirkup, Government Agent, Court-house, Nanaimo; E. W. Bramley, Secretary to the School Board, Extension, B.C.; or the Department of Public Works, Victoria, B.C.

Intending tenderers can obtain one copy of plans and specifications by applying to the undersigned with a deposit of ten dollars ($10), which will be refunded on their return in good order.

Each proposal must be accompanied by an accepted bank cheque or certificate of deposit on a chartered bank of Canada, made payable to the Honourable the Minister of Public Works, for a sum equal to 20 per cent. of tender, which shall be forfeited if the party tendering decline to enter into contract when called upon to do so, or if he fail to complete the work contracted for. The cheques or certificates of deposit of unsuccessful tenderers will be returned to them upon the execution of the contract.

Tenders will not be considered unless made out on the forms supplied, signed with the actual signature of the tenderer, and enclosed in the envelopes furnished.

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

AT THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL CHAMBER.

VICTORIA, B.C., 14th July, 1915.

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

ON the recommendation of the Honourable the Attorney-General and under the provisions of the "Court Rules of Practice Act" and all other powers thereunto enabling, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice and consent of his Executive Council, doth order as follows:—

1. During the war no probate of a will or letters of administration of the estate of any German, Austro-Hungarian, or Turkish subject, wherever resident, shall be granted in respect of any assets in this country without the express licence of the Crown acting through the Minister of Finance.

2. In all cases where probate or letters of administration are granted during the war to any person entitled thereto, the grant shall be made upon the condition that no portion of the assets shall be distributed or paid during the war to any beneficiary or creditor who is a German, Austro-Hungarian, or Turkish subject, wherever resident, or to any one on his behalf, or to or on behalf of any person resident in Germany, Austro-Hungary, or Turkey, of whatever nationality, without the express licence of the Crown acting through the Minister of Finance; and if any distribution or payment is made contrary to this condition the grant of probate or letters of administration will be forthwith revoked.

3. Any applicant for letters of administration or probate during the war shall furnish evidence to the satisfaction of the Judge to whom application is made that the person in respect to whose estate such probate or letters of administration are applied for was not a German, Austro-Hungarian, or Turkish subject; or, failing such evidence, shall produce the licence of the Crown that such probate or letters of administration may be granted. Such applicant shall also give such information as the Registrars of the Courts may require in order to ascertain whether any of the assets would in time of peace be distributable or payable to any such subjects, and if required shall make a statutory declaration as to the assets and their disposition in the event of probate or letters of administration being granted.

4. In cases deemed by him proper, the Minister of Finance may sanction the payment of moderate sums out of assets to beneficiaries or creditors who are German, Austro-Hungarian, or Turkish subjects resident in this Province at the commencement of the war and during the war.

And that the Order in Council herein, No. 553, dated the 15th May, 1915, be rescinded.

HENRY ESSON YOUNG,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS:

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867,"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint stock Company; or other wise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relates to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicant; such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in each Electoral District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest Electoral Districts in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House, to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

77. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to be run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By Rule 83, a model form of Railway Bill is adopted. A copy of same can be obtained upon application to the Clerk.

All Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petition signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated October 25th, 1910.

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which this Company has been established and licensed under the above Act are:—

(a.) To carry on all or any of the businesses usually carried on by finance, land, mortgage, trust, and agency companies, and to carry out financial and commercial operations of every description:

(b.) To lend and advance money at interest on the security of real or personal property of any kind, or without security, and generally upon such terms and subject to such conditions as may seem expedient:

(c.) To undertake and execute any trusts or trusteeship whatsoever, and to act as agents for the investment, loan, payment, transmission, and collection of money, and for the purchase, sale, improvement, development, and management of property, including business concerns and undertakings, and generally to transact and undertake all kinds of agency and commission business, and to carry on on its own behalf any businesses, concerns, or undertakings in which it may become interested:

(d.) To purchase, underwrite, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire and deal in investments and securities of all classes, including shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of any company, whether British, colonial or foreign, or of any authority, supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise, and to make arrangements for the issue, underwriting, resale, exchange, or distribution of such investments and securities:

(e.) To establish or promote any company or similar body and to form and manage syndicates:

(f.) To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in any part of the world, and to apply for any Act of Parliament, concession, grant, decree, right, or privilege whatsoever, and to deal with, develop, and turn the same to account:

(g.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise and to sell and deal in land or any interest in land in any part of the world, and to prepare building-sites, erect buildings, lay out roads or irrigation-works, and otherwise develop and improve any land, buildings, or other property, whether belonging to the Company or not:

(h.) To give any guarantee for the payment of money or the carrying-out of any contract or obligation, and in particular to guarantee the principal, interest, and dividends of any shares, stocks, loans, debentures, and securities:

(i.) To institute, enter into, carry on, finance, assist, or participate in trading, financial, commercial, mercantile, industrial, manufacturing, mining, and other businesses, works, contracts, undertakings, and operations of all kinds, and to carry on business as exporters and importers of any articles:

(j.) To buy, sell, construct, execute, carry out, equip, and work, develop, administer, manage, or control, or to be interested in all kinds of works, public or private, and forests, lands containing oil and minerals, oil-refineries, fisheries, railways, tramways, docks, harbours, piers, wharves, canals, reservoirs, embankments, irrigations, reclamations, and also sewage, drainage, sanitary, hydraulic, water, gas, electricity, and power-supply works, and to carry on business as ship-owners, ship-builders, merchants, farmers, fruit-farmers, timber merchants, market-gardeners, hotel and store keepers:

(k.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction, or operation, whether mercantile, commercial, financial, manufacturing, trading, or otherwise, which an individual capitalist could lawfully undertake and carry out: Provided that nothing herein contained shall empower the Company to carry on the business of life assurance or assurance within the meaning of the "Assurance Companies Act, 1909," or the business of insuring employers against liability to pay compensation or damages to workmen in their employment:

(l.) To take, acquire by purchase, lease, grant, license, or exchange any lands, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, patent or other rights or privileges, and generally any property whatsoever of any kind, whether real or personal, or any estate or interest therein:

(m.) To improve, manage, work, develop, and turn to account any property, real or personal, acquired by the Company or in which the Company is interested, and to sell, lease, convert into money, barter, or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, assets, and effects of the Company for such considerations as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, stocks, or securities of any other company, either fully or partly paid up, and to accept payment by instalments for any property so sold by instalments:

(n.) To draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(o.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on, or authorized or intended to carry on, any business whatsoever:

(p.) To receive money on deposit and to borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company's business:

(q.) To mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company:

(r.) To create and issue at par, or at a premium or discount, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, and other securities, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or payable, and to secure any securities of the Company by means of a trust deed or otherwise, and, in the case of uncalled capital, to confer upon the encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls as the directors may think fit:

(s.) To issue any shares or securities which the Company has power to issue by way of security and indemnity to any person whom the Company has agreed or is bound or willing to indemnify, or in satisfaction of any liability, and generally in every respect upon such terms and conditions and for such considerations as the Board may think fit:

(t.) To pay all expenses of and in connection with the incorporation or in or about the promotion of this or any other company, and the obtaining the subscription of the share and debenture capital thereof, or the quotation thereof, upon any stock exchange or bourse:

(u.) To amalgamate the business with that of any other company, firm, or person, whether by sale or purchase of the undertaking, subject to the liabilities of this or any such other company, firm, or person, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities or assets of this or any such other company, firm, or person as aforesaid, and to enter into any partnership or arrangement in the nature of partnership:

(v.) To take all necessary and proper steps in Parliament or with any foreign, colonial, or other Government, or with any authority, local, municipal, or otherwise, of any place in which the Company may have interests for enabling the Company to give effect to these presents, or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to oppose any Act, Bill, or provisional order which may seem, directly or indirectly, opposed to the Company's interests:

(w.) To give pensions, gratuities, donations, and emoluments to any person at any time in the employment of the Company, and the wives, widows, families, and dependents of any such persons, and to support and subscribe to any national, educational, scientific, literary, religious, or charitable institutions or objects, or trade societies, and to any establishment which may be considered to be in any way calculated to advance the interests of the Company, or of the persons employed by the Company, or to subscribe towards or guarantee the expenses of or otherwise take part in the promotion of any exhibition:

(x.) To distribute amongst the members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(y.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents or trustees for others, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or persons, firm, or company, as trustee or agent for the Company, and either alone or in conjunction with any person or persons, firm, company, Government, body, or authority:

(z.) To do all such other things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere:

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or the name of the Company.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are restricted to acquiring, managing, developing, working, and selling mines, mineral claims, and mining properties, and the winning, getting, treating, refining, and marketing of mineral therefrom; and are—

(a.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, within the Province, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, mining lands, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, and turn the same to account, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them, or any interest therein:

(b.) To dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyse, reduce, amalgamate, and otherwise treat gold, silver, coal, copper, lead ores or deposits, and other minerals and metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any of them:

(c.) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining company in all or any of its branches:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise such timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals, buildings, machinery, plants, or other real or personal property as may be necessary for or conducive to the proper carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(e.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, sawmills, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, hydraulic works, coke-ovens, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and, with the consent of the shareholders in general meeting, to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operation, though constructed and maintained by any other Company; and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels, and effects required by the Company or its workmen and servants:

(f.) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate, and use steam and other vessels for the purpose of the Company:

(g.) To take, acquire, and hold as the consideration for ores, metals, or minerals sold or otherwise disposed of, or for goods supplied or for work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, bonds, or other securities of or in any other company the objects of which are restricted as herein aforesaid, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(h.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any other person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business or transaction which a company specially limited under this section is authorized to carry on:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any of the assets, business, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any part of the business which a company specially limited under this section is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes thereof:

(j.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, but so that the amount so borrowed or raised shall not, without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company, exceed one-quarter of the amount of the paid-up capital for the time being, and for the purpose of securing such money and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments: Provided, however, that the restriction in the subsection contained as to borrowing without the sanction of a general meeting shall not be deemed to be imperative, and in nowise limit, control, or affect any power of borrowing vested in the Board of Directors of the Company or of the Company under the memorandum, articles, or by-laws of the Company:

(k.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(l.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any company: Provided, however, that in a case of any sale for shares in a company other than a non-personal liability company, such shares shall be fully paid up:

(m.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To purchase from James McMurray all those mineral claims situate in the District of Vancouver, known as Lot 1904, Norman Mineral Claim; Lot 1905, Porcupine Mineral Claim; and Lot 1906, Jose Mineral Claim, all in the Comox Assessment District, in the Province of British Columbia:

(b.) To dig for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, assay, analyse, reduce, amalgamate, and otherwise treat gold, silver, coal, copper, lead ores or deposits, and other minerals and metallic substances and compounds of all kinds, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any of them:

(c.) To carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining company in all or any of its branches:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise such timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, mills, factories, furnaces for smelting and treating ores and refining metals, buildings, machinery, plant, or other real or personal property as may be necessary for or conducive to the proper carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(e.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, sawmills, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, hydraulic works, coke-ovens, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company; and, with the consent of the shareholders in general meeting, to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operation, though constructed and maintained by any other company or persons outside of the property of the Company; and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels, and effects required by the Company or its workmen and servants:

(f.) To build, acquire, own, charter, navigate, and use steam and other vessels for the purposes of the Company:

(g.) To take, acquire, and hold as the consideration for ores, metals, or minerals sold or otherwise disposed of, or for goods supplied or for work done by contract or otherwise, shares, debentures, bonds, or other securities of or in any other company the objects of which are restricted as herein aforesaid, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(h.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any other person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business or transaction which a company specially limited under this section is authorized to carry on:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any of the assets, business, property, privileges, contracts, rights, obligations, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any part of the business which a company specially limited under this section is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes thereof:

(j.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, but so that the amount so borrowed or raised shall not, without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company, exceed one-quarter of the amount of the paid-up capital for the time being, and for the purpose of securing such money and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments: Provided, however, that the restriction in this subsection contained as to borrowing without the sanction of a general meeting shall not be deemed to be imperative, and shall in no wise limit, control, or affect any power of borrowing vested in the Board of Directors of the Company or of the Company under the memorandum, articles, or by-laws of the Company:

(k.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(l.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any company: Provided, however, that in case of a sale for shares in a company other than a non-personal liability company, such shares shall be fully paid up:

(m.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the foregoing objects:

"BENEVOLENT SOCIETIES ACT."

CANADA:
PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

To Wit:

In the Matter of the Incorporation of the "Vancouver Woman's Musical Club" pursuant to "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1911," Chapter 19, Section 3, and Amending Act, being "An Act to incorporate Benevolent and other Societies."

WE, Jean Coulthard, of the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, married woman, and Esther Beecher Weld, of the said City of Vancouver, married woman, do each respectively solemnly declare:—

1. That we have, together with other parties, formed ourselves into a society under the intended corporate name of "Vancouver Woman's Musical Club," situate at the City of Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

2. That Esther Beecher Weld, married woman; Eleanor Dallas Peter, married woman; and Sarah Dallas Smellie, married woman, all of the said City of Vancouver, are to be the first directors of the said "Vancouver Woman's Musical Club" until the next annual general meeting, and thereafter for each and every succeeding year the President, Vice-President, and second Vice-President elected at the annual general meeting are to be the directors of the Society and hold office until the next annual general meeting of the Society.

3. That the Society be an association of women, and that the object of said Society be for mutual improvement and pleasure, for the advancement of musical culture throughout the Province of British Columbia, and the giving and holding of concerts and musical entertainments, the instruction and tuition of music, and for the hiring and letting of public halls and opera houses for the purpose of giving entertainments of any description, and to engage, employ, hire, or enter into contracts of any description with any person or persons or with any other company for the production and rendering of any or all entertainments of a musical or theatrical character, and to purchase any real or personal estate and hold the same or dispose of the same for the purposes and objects of the Society.

4. That the said Society shall be governed by the following regulations:—

Section 1. The class and basis of membership, the condition governing the regulation of members and privileges of same shall be at the discretion of the committee appointed each year at the annual general meeting, two weeks' notice of which shall be sent to every member in good standing, each of whom shall be entitled to vote on payment of annual fees. Said committee shall also have vested in it the general management of the Society, and shall be empowered to appoint such sub-committees as they may deem necessary for the satisfactory advancement of the interests of the Society. Said committee shall consist of the President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer (or Secretary-Treasurer) and not less than ten other members.

Section 2. The annual meeting shall be held during the month of April in each and every year, when detailed reports shall be submitted of work during the past year in connection with the Society.

And we each respectively make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true, and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the "Canada Evidence Act."

ESTHER BEECHER WELD.
JEAN COULTHARD.

The said Jean Coulthard and Esther Beecher Weld were severally affirmed before me, at the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, this 25th day of April 1916.

DOMINION ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Tuesday, the 11th day of April, 1916.

PRESENT:

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS the Government of the Province of British Columbia has, under the terms of an agreement between that Government and the Government of the Dominion with reference to mineral lands in the Railway Belt, as set out in the Order in Council of the 11th of February, 1890, applied for a grant of the undermentioned lands and has complied with the provisions of the Order in Council of the 13th May, 1899, by filing the sworn declaration of Joseph E. Ross, Dominion Land Surveyor, to the effect that the lands in question are of no value for agricultural purposes or for the timber growing thereon and has paid therefor at the rate of $1 per acre the sum of fifty dollars and sixty-two cents ($50.62), the said lands being:—

That certain parcel or tract of land situate in Sections Eleven, Thirteen, and Fourteen, in the Nineteenth Township in the Eighteenth Range, west of the sixth meridian, comprising part of the mineral claim known as the "Grass Roots," being Lot Number One thousand four hundred and ninety-six, Group One, in the Kamloops Mining Division of the Yale District, in the Province of British Columbia, and which may be more particularly described as follows:—

Beginning at a wooden post in a stone mound situated seven hundred and five feet and two-tenths of a foot south and five hundred and ninety-three feet and six-tenths of a foot west of an iron post in a stone mound at the north-east corner of said Section Eleven; thence north fifty-seven degrees and fifty-five minutes west a distance of eight hundred and eighty-one feet and two-tenths of a foot, more or less, to its intersection with the east boundary of Legal Subdivision Fifteen of said Section Eleven; thence northerly along the said east boundary a distance of two hundred and thirty-seven feet and three-tenths of a foot, more or less, to the north-east corner of said Legal Subdivision Fifteen; thence westerly along the north boundary of the said legal subdivision three hundred and seventy-eight feet and one-tenth of a foot; thence north fifty-seven degrees and fifty-five minutes west a distance of one hundred and seventy-two feet and three-tenths of a foot, more or less, to a wooden post in a stone mound; thence north thirty-two degrees and five minutes east a distance of one thousand five hundred feet, more or less, to a wooden post in a stone mound; thence south fifty-seven degrees and fifty-five minutes east a distance of one thousand five hundred feet, more or less, to a wooden post in a stone mound; thence south thirty-two degrees and five minutes west a distance of one thousand five hundred feet, more or less, to the place of beginning; the said parcel containing by admeasurement fifty acres and sixty-two hundredths of an acre, more or less; all the said bearings being astronomical: All according to the plan and field notes of the said "Grass Roots" Mineral Claim dated the third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and six, signed by J. E. Ross, Dominion and British Columbia Land Surveyor, and of record in the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, under Number Eight thousand two hundred and seventy-two.

Therefore His Royal Highness the Governor in Council is pleased to order that the title to the lands herein described shall be and the same is hereby vested in His Majesty King George the Fifth for the purposes of the Province of British Columbia, under the terms of the agreement and Order in Council mentioned above.
